

Annual General Meeting 1 December 2021

Summary of key matters discussed:

In response to shareholders on the impact of Movement Control Order (MCO) due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Company informed that its bedding operation had been affected but not as bad as some other industries. Labour shortage was not an issue affecting the bedding operation as its workers are Malaysians. The Company would continue to look for new business opportunities.