

Annual General Meeting 4 December 2019

Summary of key matters discussed:

Shareholders requested the Company to pay higher dividends in view of high cash position in the Company. The Company took note of shareholders' request and added that the cash was conserved for new investments and it had been prudent in cash management.

The Company stated that the markets for bedding products had been very competitive in Malaysia and China.